Get into teaching through Blackfriars TSA

Do you want to make a difference and inspire young people?

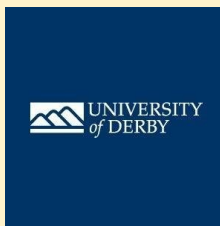

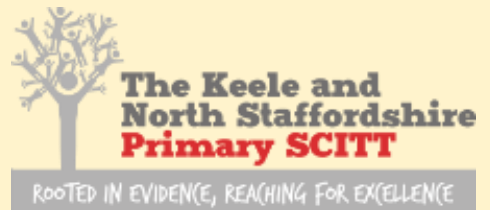

Do you want to invest your time in a career and not just a job?

Do you want a job where no two days are the same?

Then why not get into teaching through Blackfriars?

Whether you are looking to become a primary or secondary teacher in a mainstream or special school, our School Direct programme is an excellent way to become a teacher.

School Direct is a school-led initial teacher training (SCITT) programme which enables you to be immersed in teaching from the very start, fully preparing you for your teaching career. We work closely with a consortium of primary and secondary schools near to Newcastle, Kidsgrove and Staffordshire and work in partnership with The OAKS, Staffordshire University, KNSPS and Derby University.

We offer an excellent programme led by educational professionals with support and guidance available throughout. In just 1 year you could be a fully trained teacher.

To view the eligibility criteria, the places on offer and to apply, please go to www.ucas.com, select Teacher Training in the course dropdown box and then enter 'Blackfriars' into the search for a training provider box.

Would you like to visit our schools before you apply? We can arrange taster sessions so that you can get a feel of school-life and what it takes to be a teacher.
